

Dear Parents/Guardians,

“Success is the sum of small efforts repeated day – in and day – out”. Robert Collier

I begin this month’s newsletter with Robert Colliers’ inspiring quote about success.

This quote truly exemplifies what our school community strives for every day with your student at Warren Glen Academy. Our teachers work collaboratively to promote and support your child’s efforts celebrating their individual successes - no matter how great - or how small.

This month we are proud to recognize our students’ accomplishments in Art, Technology, Woodshop and our Students of the Month, and “Caught You Doing Good.” Awards.
