

WGA K-21 Special Education Teacher Job Posting

We are seeking a passionate and dedicated Special Education Teacher with experience in behavioral modification strategies to join our team. The ideal candidate will demonstrate a strong commitment to meeting the unique needs of students with disabilities while fostering a supportive, engaging, and restorative classroom environment.

Responsibilities

- Differentiate instruction and implement modification strategies (referencing IEPs) to address the diverse needs and challenges of students.
- Provide individualized, one-on-one support for students experiencing social, emotional, or behavioral challenges.
- Manage and support students.
- Reinforce positive behavior through consistent natural consequences, alternative choices, and positive reinforcement, promoting growth, healing, and dignity.
- Collaborate with teachers, support staff, and parents to address student behavioral challenges, track progress, and adjust interventions along with educational needs.
- Maintain thorough documentation of educational and behavior changes made to promote growth.
- Foster a safe, inclusive, respectful, and supportive environment for all students.

Qualifications

- Required: NJ Teacher of Students with Disabilities or Teacher of the Handicapped Certification (Standard Certificate).
- Ability to adapt strategies and modifications to meet the needs of diverse learners with disabilities.
- Flexibility to work with students at elementary, middle, and high school levels.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Demonstrated ability to collaborate effectively with colleagues, parents, and support staff.
- Patience, empathy, and a genuine passion for working with students with diverse learning needs.
- Preferred: Training in Handle with Care (desirable but not required).